Mr Vasudeva Rao's reversion was decided upon in March 1919, though the difficulties felt in arranging for his relief the decision could not be given effect to till recently.

~~In this~~ For the main reason for that decision was that he had not done well as an Amildar at Kunigal. In his present representation Mr Vasudeva Rao asks for a reconsideration of that impression for reasons urged by him.

This is a matter for orders.

The humble memorial of V.S. Vasudeva Rao, acting Assistant Commissioner in Charge in Charge of the Dt. Treasury, Mysore, respectfully showeth:-

1) That the humble memorialist who has been acting as Assistant Commr. Since the 10th of November 1918 has all on a sudden been reverted as Amildar in Govt. order no. 480 CB 71-20 of 5.10.20.

2) That he has all along discharged the duties entrusted to him with diligence & zeal & given Satisfaction to his Superior Officers as the enclosed testimonials will show & that he was surprised & shocked by this unexpected & unmerited punishment at the tail end of his service.

3) That he is perfectly in the dark as to the reasons for this step & has had no opportunity of either knowing the charges against him or of submitting his Explanation in respect of them.

4) that it is an elementary principle of justice that no man should be condemned without being heard, be his offence ever so great, a principle which is in every way the foundation of Criminal justice.

5) that the same principle is affirmed in the G.O. no 5256-93/G.M. 233-14-1 of 23. 11. 1914, re: Confidential reports even, which requires that where the reports are so damaging against an officer as to involve the stoppage of his promotion or degradation he should be furnished with a copy of the report and any Explanation he might offer should be considered.

6) that the Municipalist bears that the reason for his reversion was his suppressed badness in Municipal Town where he was Commissioner there.

7) that he can not endeavour bring himself to believe that this is the case because he stopped in Municipal only for 10 months from 17. 11. 1917 to October 1918 a period which he is admittedly too short for an officer to become well acquainted with the working of his charge especially when after he went to Municipal Town as he was to the Talukas, he had to the allegations, if any, against him, may be kindly given him so that he may have full opportunity of placing before your Lordship & justice and fair play that he feels sure this humble request will not be denied to him for which act of mercy, your humble petitioner will, as in duty bound, pray for your long life & prosperity.

CENTRAL COLLEGE,

Bangalore.

16th March 1897.

I have known V.S.Vasudeva Rao since the beginning of 1895, when he passed the B.A. Sanskrit Branch. In 1896 he passed in English and was successful this year in Science. He attended my class in English, and I always found him regular, intelligent and industrious, which I have no doubt gained him the success he has achieved. His conduct was very good, and his manner always quiet and respectful. I believe him to be a young man of good moral character. I hope he will meet with suitable employment, which he deserves to do. He will be certain to give satisfaction if he taken with him into public life the qualities he displayed as a student.

During the very short period of 3 months, which Vasudeva Rao discharged the duties of School Inspector at Chickmagalur, he showed himself hard-working and gave satisfaction.

III.

When I came here in February 1838, I found Inspector Vasudeva Rao as a First Grade Amildar at Sagar. His quiet hard-working, unassuming manners and respectability of character gained for him the promotions he fully deserved. He has had enough of Mofussil service and I am glad he has a timely transfer to the Madras

Maidan Taluq of Chitaldrug where he is likely to regain his health. I would be glad to hear of his further promotions.

V.S.Vasudeva Rao, B.A. is a thoroughly reliable Police Officer. He has been tried in the Executive Line as Taluk Inspector and for the last 18 months, as Prosecuting Inspector, In both these capacities he has given entire satisfaction.

VI.

A most competent and intelligent officer and a strict disciplinarian -- a feature which few Inspectors possess. He has a very clear grasp of law which is essential for the successful working of a case and its prosecution. During the short period of two years he was in this circle, he impressed me very favourably with his Zeal, aptitude for work and honesty of purpose. He kept the Office clerk under control and put a stop to their mischief with iron hand. There are few inspectors who can approach him and he will be a real acquisition to any District. ~~xxxxxx~~ Above all, he is thoroughly honest, very trustworthy and is well-behaved.

8th February 1906.

My dear Sir,

A rumour reaches me that there is some idea of transferring Vasudeva Rao, Prosecuting Inspector of this District to Shimoga. I should not have troubled you with this letter about him, before gaining confirmation of the Report but for my anxiety to retain the few good men I have in this district. I recommended the transfer of some of the bad Inspectors who are inefficient and even worse. But there were difficulties in the way of giving effect to my recommendation and when it comes to a question of taking away any of my good men, -- I am sure you will not allow the the interest of my District to suffer by their transfer.

Yours very sincerely,
Sd/ H.Ramanuja Iyengar.
